13) Safety regulations

The fuel tank of exhibited vehicles must be to a large extent empty. It must not be possible for unauthorised persons to open the tank filler cap. The vehicle battery/batteries must be disconnected and the vehicle keys kept in readiness at the stand. Any unexpected fuel leaks must be cleaned up immediately using an appropriate binding agent or dry cloths. Binding agents or cloths must then be removed from the halls immediately and correctly disposed of. In special cases, and only by arrangement with MESSE BREMEN, used binding agents or cloths can be stored temporarily outside of the halls on the premises until correct disposal. MESSE BREMEN can limit or prohibit the display of vehicles at its discretion. The maximum driving speed within the fair grounds is 5 km/h, and vehicles are only permitted for loading and unloading. The German road traffic regulations apply. Delivery vehicles must unload goods and then depart quickly. During the opening hours of the fair, any kind of traffic on the fair grounds is prohibited. Fire extinguishers, emergency exits and warning and information signs must be directly accessible and clearly visible. All aisles must be kept clear for possible rescue operations.

14) Cleaning/disposal

Exhibitors are obliged to use underlays for greasy/oily exhibits (oil boards are available free of charge at the exhibition office). Any kind of soiling of the hall floors and the fair grounds is prohibited. All resulting cleaning costs shall be paid by the exhibitor. All exhibitors are obliged to collect their waste in separate bins according to recycling rules, and to dispose of it at their own cost.

15) Advertising

Company advertising in and on the vehicles is prohibited (Violation leads to exclusion from the event) Traders who are already taking part as exhibitors in the exhibition halls may only offer their vehicles on the designated trader deck.

16) Regulations for selling

Sales to exhibition visitors are basically permitted. Objects that are offered for sale must be sold at the final consumer price. Exhibitors must refrain from unfair competition against competitors and local companies. Anyone wanting to offer refreshments on a temporary commercial basis requires the permission of MESSE BREMEN as well as a license, which the exhibitor must apply for at the City Administration. When selling goods and services, the exhibitor must display prices to final consumers as end prices according to the regulations of the German Price Quotation Directive (PAngV).

17) Exhibitor passes vehicle mart:

1 pass per registered vehicle, up to a max. of 2 passes.

Exhibitors that are already registered for the sales exhibition, autojumble, ambience, Young Classics or club presentation do not receive any additional exhibitor passes for the vehicle mart.

Any exhibitor passes not required may not be passed on or sold to third parties on site. Infringements of this rule will be penalised.

18) Image copyrights

M3B GmbH / MESSE BREMEN reserves the right to make visual and audio recordings of the event and/or to hire third parties to do so, and to utilise the recorded material. M3B GmbH / MESSE BREMEN retain full rights to use of the images, even if individual persons are recognisable in them. The exhibitor consents to the photographs and recordings made during the BREMEN CLASSIC MOTORSHOW 2019 in Bremen of him or his employees or otherwise involved persons being utilized free of charge by M3B GmbH in unaltered or altered form for own press and marketing purposes (also commercial purposes). This applies without any geographical or temporal restriction of use, and also includes consent to passing on such recordings to third parties for non-commercial use. The exhibitor undertakes to inform his employees, hostesses and all people involved of this circumstance.

19) Data protection

Your data will be stored, processed and used by the organiser for the purpose of service provision in accordance with the data protection law regulations. If necessary, the data will be passed on to service partners (electrical connection, exhibition stand construction, stand furniture suppliers, hostess service etc.) for this purpose. In addition, the local and national media will be informed to enable exhibition-related advertising about the show and the exhibitors. In this context, the publicly available business address provided during stand registration (company name, contact person, address, telephone number and e-mail address) will be passed on to the media. If you do not agree to the passing on of your business address, you can object to its disclosure personally in the exhibition office, by phoning +49 (0) 421-3505-525 or by email to info@classicmotorshow.de.

20) Verbal agreements

Amendments and supplements to the terms must be made in writing. Verbal agreements must be confirmed in writing by MESSE BREMEN to attain validity.
